The Portuguese courses of the Embassy of Portugal in Beijing are organized by IPOR - Instituto Português do Oriente, a private, non-profit legal entity, with an associative character, recognized as an institution of public administrative utility in Macau SAR, founded by Fundação Oriente and Camões - Institute for Cooperation and Language, I.P in 1989. One of its purposes is to preserve and disseminate the Portuguese language and culture in the East, with the aim of deepening intercultural dialogue.

ABOUT US

Classes are taught by Luís Pires, Education and Culture Attaché at the Portuguese Embassy in Beijing and Coordinator of the IPOR delegation in the Chinese capital. Luís was previously a Lecturer for the University of Lisbon and the Instituto Camões, with over thirteen years of experience teaching Portuguese in China, respectively at the Tianjin Foreign Studies University and at the Shanghai International Studies University.
